

Rural Organizing Fellowship Application

Application deadline is January 31st, 2020

Name: _____ Birth Date: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

What are your gender pronouns? For example: they/them, she/her, he/him?

How long have you lived in the community where you are now? If less than three years, where did you live before that?

What are you doing now? School, work, volunteer work, taking care of family members? Tell us about your life.

Have you been involved in any community organizing, social justice related projects, or other projects in your community, school, or workplace? Are you connected to any community or school clubs, groups, or organizations? Tell us about that.

Tell us about a project you worked on with a team. What was your role and how did you support the team?

How did you form your ideas about social justice?

Why are you applying to be a part of the Rural Organizing Fellowship?

Who is the person in your life who has had the biggest impact on you? Tell us about them.

Can you attend all four weekend-long retreats throughout the year?

Retreat dates will be announced soon! To support fellows' full participation, Rural Organizing Project will reimburse travel expenses, provide on-site childcare and/or reimburse for childcare at home, interpretation, and a wage-replacement stipend of $150 for each retreat. Retreats will be hosted in accessible community spaces and campgrounds when weather permits; ROP will gather camping gear and bedding to loan to fellows.*

Please give us contact information for two references. Both references can be personal, work, or school references. Please include their name, phone number, and email address, if possible.

Reference 1:

Reference 2:

Thank you for your application!

Please email this application to fellowship@rop.org or mail to:

Rural Organizing Project

PO Box 664 Cottage Grove, OR 97424

Questions? Email fellowship@rop.org or call 541-802-6020